

Bräustüberl at a glance

Opening times

Daily from 9am - 11.00 pm
hot food served all day, no closing day

1400 seats (at 160 tables)

310 in the large Bräustüberl, 150 in the Sudhaus, up to 65 in the small Bräustüberl, 60 at the front of the pub and 750 on the terrace.

In the bar

Tegernsee Spezial – smooth, mild, with well-rounded flavour (original gravity 13.3°, alc. vol. 5.6%)

Tegernsee Hell – a typical Bavarian full-bodied beer, fresh, sour and light, for all occasions (original gravity 11.5°, alc. vol. 4.8%)

Tegernsee Dunkel Export – original, specially brewed with distinctive character (original gravity 12.8°, alc. vol. 5.0%)

Tegernsee Leicht – delicate, light and refreshing with low alcohol content (original gravity 7.8°, alc. vol. 2.8%)

Alcohol-free wheat beer and unfiltered wheat beer from private wheat beer brewery Georg Schneider & Sohn, Kelheim (unfiltered wheat beer: original gravity 12.5°, alc. vol. 5.2%).

Groups

Groups can also order and enjoy à la carte dining with us. Our kitchen team is also very reliable when it comes to adhering to tight schedules. For large groups of over 40 people, please make a reservation in advance to ensure we can accommodate you.

Directions

On the A8 (Munich – Salzburg), take the Holzkirchen exit and continue straight on until you get to Tegernsee. Or by Bayerische Oberlandbahn from Munich train station to Tegernsee. There are plenty of parking spaces around Bräustüberl for cars and buses.

Additional info

There is free Wi-Fi connection throughout Bräustüberl and on the terrace. Menus and up-to-date information can be found at www.braustuberl.de

We accept ec cards and all standard credit cards.